Covid Vaccines: Walgreens, CVS and Rite Aid are trying to reduce barriers to getting Covid-19 vaccines with approaches like same-day appointments and walk-ins. In the Chicago area, Walgreens is activating mobile clinics to reach people in underserved neighborhoods by bringing vaccines to them. Drugstore chains and public health officials are trying to keep up the momentum as the pace of vaccinations per day slows in the U.S. (cnbc.com)

Verizon -Verizon will sell its media group, which includes brands from AOL and Yahoo, to private equity firm Apollo Global Management. The sale signals that Verizon will focus on its internet-provider businesses as rivals continue to explore media. (cnbc.com)
